

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Wyandotte Electric Supply Company v Woodward Coverall Inc
Docket No. 291510
L.C. No. 06-631269-CH

Christopher M. Murray, Chief Judge Pro Tem, acting under MCR 7.201(B)(3) and 7.216(A)(10), orders:

The claim of appeal is DISMISSED for failure to pursue the case in conformity with the rules. MCR 7.201(B)(3) and 7.216(A)(10). The Clerk of this Court provided notice regarding the nature of the defect in this filing, and the defect was not corrected in a timely manner by providing this Court with a corrected claim of appeal providing full party designations. The Clerk of this Court requested a corrected claim of appeal "providing full party designations for all parties to this case, specifically designating parties as counter-plaintiffs, counter-defendants, cross-plaintiffs, cross-defendants, etc., not merely as plaintiffs and defendants." Appellant failed to provide a reasonable response to this request, instead providing a purported corrected claim of appeal that failed to provide a designation for even a single party as anything other than a plaintiff or defendant. Dismissal is without prejudice to whatever other relief may be available consistent with the Court Rules.
